

CV Fidel Elsensohn

Born April 25. 1954 in Rankweil, Austria

1964 – 1972 Highschool and Graduation, Bregenz and Feldkirch, Austria

1972-1980 Medical School Innsbruck University

1978 Scholarship at Tulane University and General Hospital
New Orleans

1980 – 1984 Internship Hospitals Feldkirch and Hohenems, Austria, and Graduation as General Physician

1989 Diploma in Emergency Medicine, 1994 Diploma Supervising Emergency Doctor

Since 1984 Mountain Emergency Physician

1987 – 2010 Air Rescue emergency physician

1989 – 2009 Senior emergency physician and Medical Director of Austrian Mountain Rescue Service, Province of Vorarlberg, Austria

2000 – 2010 Senior emergency physician and Medical Director of Air Rescue Service Province of Vorarlberg, Austria

1994 – 2009 Delegate to ICAR MEDCOM (International Commission for Mountain Emergency Medicine)

Since 2001 President of Medical Commission of Austrian Mountain Rescue Service

Since 2009 President of ICAR MEDCOM (International Commission for Mountain Emergency Medicine)

Scientific author with publications in “Journal for High Altitude Medicine and Biology”, “Wilderness Medical Journal”, Resuscitation”, Alpinmedizinischer Rundbrief” and scientific articles in yearbooks and other books about emergency medicine.

Editor of „Consensus Guidelines on Mountain Emergency Medicine and Risk Reduction” Casa Edizioni Stefanoni, Lecco 2002

Lecturer Mountain Medicine Courses of the Austrian Society for Mountain and High Altitude Medicine, and Transalp Diploma Courses in Mountain Emergency Medicine.